The Rockland Talbot House, the Berry Manor Inn or both properties combined provide the perfect intimate setting for your small wedding destination to the coast of Maine. The Berry Manor Inn, built in 1898 with all the grandeur of the Victorian age and as a wedding present for his new bride, this shingle-styled mansion was originally the private residence of Charles H. Berry. The Rockland Talbot House, a 2nd Empire Mansard Italianate, was the subject of an Edward Hopper painting in 1926. Today these two properties remain two of the most stately homes in Rockland and the area’s premier bed and breakfast inns. Your innkeepers are seasoned event coordinators and can help make your function truly special.

Rockland Talbot House:

The Rockland Talbot House can reasonably accommodate indoor functions for up to forty (40) people. Specific limits as to the number of people that can be accommodated comfortably will depend on the type of function being held and the set-up requirements for food, beverages, entertainment and/or seating. To enable us to prepare for your wedding without compromising your needs or the quality of our other guests’ experience, a minimum rental period for the entire inn is required for all weddings and related events.

- The Rockland Talbot House offers several beautiful backdrops both inside and outside the house for memorable photographs for the bridal party.
- Due to the historic significance and age of the Rockland Talbot House there is no appropriate space to allow for dancing.
- Due to the arrival and departure of our other guests, rental of the Rockland Talbot House begins with the 4:00 pm check-in time and ends with our 11:00 am check-out time.
- Early Arrival or Late Departure time may be able to be accommodated if arranged in advance and an early arrival or late departure fee may apply.
- If you will require access to the inn prior to 4 pm for decorating or wedding preparation we suggest that you rent the inn beginning the previous evening.
- Depending on the size of the function, we may require the use of the private bathroom with guestroom #1 and perhaps an additional private bathroom in one of the 2nd floor guestrooms to be made available for guests’ use during the function in addition to the powder room on the first floor.
The inn is located in a residential neighborhood, so out of respect for our neighbors and to comply with the city’s noise ordinances, we ask that all outdoor music and activities be scheduled to stop by 9:00 pm. All indoor and outdoor activity and cleanup should be scheduled to be completed by 9:30 pm unless prior arrangements have been made. Limited parking is available at the inn; street parking in designated areas is available. There are municipal parking lots available within walking distance of the inn that should be used for larger functions.

2.) Additional Uses not Covered in Event Rental Fee Above:
- In addition to the ceremony and a small reception, the inn may be used for a catered sit down rehearsal dinner for up to 16 people, day after breakfast buffet, bridesmaid’s tea, Friday evening informal gathering or other related wedding functions that can be reasonably accommodated in the space and agreed upon in advance as part of the contract for the event.
- Additional costs for any such additional functions outside of the ceremony and wedding reception will be determined and agreed upon in advance once all requirements for set-up and clean-up are identified.
- Additional charges will apply for the rental of additional tables and chairs; flowers, food & beverages (as provided by the inn or by an outside caterer); rental or use of the inn’s china, glassware, silver-ware and linens and/or for the number of different functions within the one event. Prices can be discussed as plans are finalized.

Rates vary by date and day of week, generally the quieter time of year (November through May) rates will start around $650 per night for all 4 rooms and in the season (June through late October) rates start around $995 per night.

- To ensure that your wedding is as magical as it should be, the Rockland Talbot House requires that all 4 guest rooms be rented for any wedding ceremony and reception greater than 16 people.
